Love at First Sight

Hi I'm Charlee, a bridal makeup specialist based in Dorset. I am passionate about providing high quality bridal makeup applications and making brides, mums, friends and everyone in-between look and feel their best for your special day!

I have been a makeup artist for over 10 years now after obtaining a BA (Hons) Makeup for Media Performance degree. Following this I worked within the industry for brands such as MAC Cosmetics, before realising my passion lay working with brides to achieve their dream makeup look for their special day.

My style of makeup has been described as 'natural yet impactful' which I think fits the bill perfectly! Over the years I have established a natural flair for 'soft glam' makeup, made up of beautifully diffused skin and defined eyes tailored to flatter each of my brides natural beauty, so you look nothing less than gorgeous both in person and in front of the lens.

I have been carrying out weddings on a weekly basis for over 7 years now, and am a true pro when it comes to wedding mornings, where I am always happy to help out with any job be it big or small to make the morning of your wedding run seamlessly.

I cover all areas of Dorset, and some areas of surrounding counties (mileage at an extra charge) and have a minimum number of 4 makeup applications across peak summer dates.

Booking your Bridal Makeup

Booking

After your initial enquiry, if I am available, I will pop this brochure across and if requested prepare a quote detailing your bridal party requirements to include the 20% deposit amount as well as details of your trials & on the day makeups.

If you wish to proceed, once you have paid your deposit, you can officially tick your wedding makeup off the list & I will send you a booking confirmation.

Depending how far in advance you have booked we will agree a date for your trial or I will let you know when I will be booking trials for your wedding year!

Please note: I cannot hold dates without the deposit being paid. I also have a minimum booking number of 4 makeups per wedding.

Your Bridal Makeup Trial

When coming for your trial I recommend keeping up to 1.5 hours aside in your diary, which will allow me to get to know you & your wedding plans, listening to any ideas you may have for your makeup.

I will also discuss your dress and shades and textures within this, as well as colour themes/palettes you may wish to incorporate into your makeup!

Please bring along any Pinterest Boards/ ideas you may wish to discuss, as well as if possible a blank canvas for me to work on - however this is not a problem if you are out and about beforehand!

We will also discuss your skin type, skincare routine and can incorporate any of your essential makeup products into the application if required.

Once your trial is complete, we will talk through the timings for the day, looking at arrival, touchup and departure times. You will also leave with a complimentary consultation card, listing all the products we used to create your bridal look.

Your Bridal Party

I will discuss with you either beforehand or at your trial any requests for your bridal party. Some brides like to give their maids free reign with makeup, and others like to keep it uniform with a style to suit them all. Whatever your preference is, I will work with you to establish what's best for your bridal party.

It is also common for mums and bridesmaids to have trials, particularly if they have any skin concerns or allergies, and this is always recommended but not compulsory. Trials can be added on at any time. In peak summer season I do have a minimum number of 4 makeups on your wedding day, but this does not apply to trials!

Your Wedding Day

On the day I will arrive at your agreed location at the time agreed in our discussion at the end of your trial.

I will have a provisional order for Makeup, however this can be worked around to suit other stylists on the morning if necessary. Often brides will be placed somewhere in the middle of this order, and will then return for touch ups prior to my departure.

Once set up I will begin working my way through our own 'order of the morning', creating beautiful bespoke makeup as discussed prior to your day. I will then remain in situ, if you wish, until you're ready to leave to ensure your makeup is looking perfect. I also love being on hand to help drain flowers, help with bridesmaids dresses, apply mums corsages and all the small but important duties in-between!

Evening Top Up Service (Optional)

By popular demand through the hot summers of previous years, I have introduced an evening top up service, where I will return to your venue, freshen up your makeup base and add some sparkle/glam to your look before you welcome in your evening guests, and take to the floor for your first dance!

Please enquire for pricing as this will dependant on your venue location.

Price List

All prices include tailored skin analysis and preparation to include cleanse, tone and dry/oily treatment (if required) prior to makeup application. Strip lashes are also included within the price.
